Welcome to the Inner Maiden Healing Certificate Training!

I look forward to working with you as your Red Moon trainer!

I am including some information to get you started so that you can get the most out of our work together. You will find in this letter a list of procedures and policies for you to sign and return to me.

Before we get started with working together, I'd like you to be familiar with the following procedures and policies that will establish a solid framework for our working relationship. If you have any questions, please e-mail me at lam@sonic.net

Procedure Phone sessions – You, the student, will call our Conference Line on time for our designated group appointments.

Conference phone number will be sent close to our starting date!

Taking the Red Moon training is a commitment you are making to yourself to achieve your goals. I consider you making our calls a priority to be a critical part of your commitment. All sessions are recorded, and recordings will be sent to all group members after each session.

The day before each session, I ask that you e-mail to me an updated Progress Form (or your own narrative of the essentials of your process since the previous session). This will inform me of your progress, current challenges, and any specific things that may have come up for you, which you would like me to weave into the coming session. Please email your document NO LATER THAN THE NIGHT BEFORE OUR SESSION, to allow me time to read it :-)

Prior to our call, I ask that you be ready for your inner work. Please make an effort to give yourself 10 minutes to focus and reflect prior to our calls.

Appointment

Changes You contracted to pay for 12 sessions, which will be carried out every other week. If you need to miss a session, please provide as much advance notice as you can. If you miss a scheduled session, you can always listen to the recording, though it is essential for the group process, as well as your own process, that you be present live for all our calls!

Problems I want you to be fully in our relationship. If ever I say or do something that doesn't feel right, or upsets you, please bring it up. I promise we will address and resolve any such issues!

Fee Your payment schedule is set for (PLEASE MARK APPROPRIATE OPTION):

_____ Deposit of $100 paid on _____ _____ 1st payment of $297.00 paid on _____
OR - $1,604.00 Payment in full (10% discount) ~ Paid/will be paid on _____

Each month's payment will be invoiced via PayPal, and will arrive in your email box at the schedule shown in the box on page 1 of this letter. If your card is denied, the monthly installment fee is due in full through other means by the installment deadline date; if not received on time, you will forfeit sessions until payment is made. Legal action will be taken if payment is beyond two weeks late.

Package As we discussed, the Red Moon training consists of 12 sessions (after which you are welcome to negotiate extending your training sessions if you need more input in order to feel confident as a Red Moon facilitator). You will receive twelve 75-minute group phone training sessions, every other week (as shown in the schedule box on page 1 of this letter).

Completing the Training -

- 1) In order to complete the training -- it is essential for you to be present on ALL live calls, unless there are excruciating circumstances that prevent you from attending (in which case kindly communicate with me as soon as you know you will be unable to attend a session in person). It is essential that you actively participate in group calls, and engage in an inner process between calls, with guidelines that will be sent to you following each session as part of this journey. At the end of this training you can choose to stop there, or to take the extra steps to becoming Certified as a Red Moon Facilitator.
- 2) Following our 12 group sessions, IF YOU WISH TO BECOME CERTIFIED - you will need to attend a Live Red Moon Workshop facilitated by DeAnna, as the next step toward getting certified as a Red Moon facilitator.
This could be obtained by you attending a weekend workshop that DeAnna facilitates, which you will organize in your community, and DeAnna will travel to facilitate. This workshop fee is included in your training fee. All other participants will pay a tuition fee to attend the weekend. OR – You can travel to attend a Red Tent Activation workshop with one of DeAnna's Certified Trainers.. If you are not the workshop organizer – you will need to pay 50% of the workshop tuition fee.
- 3) Thereafter, if you wish to become licensed as a Red Moon facilitator, you will need to purchase the Red Moon curriculum for a one-time fee ($425.00 U.S. dollars) and sign a licensing agreement.

By completing this initial Twelve-session training, and actively pursuing the goals we set during the training, you will embark upon a personal healing journey, and a professional quest. You are fully responsible for your own actions and the results of those actions (either positive or negative). Because your success depends on the actions you take, I cannot guarantee specific results. You may continue training/consulting after the initial twelve sessions have been completed, if you feel the need for more training. In such case you would need to pay for individual sessions as needed.

One last note...

My practice fills by referrals. If you benefit from our work together, I would ask you to consider referring appropriate friends and colleagues to me. I will happily give them a complimentary consultation so there is no risk or obligation to them. I am grateful when clients, friends, and colleagues refer folks to me, and I will be certain to thank you in a meaningful way. Further, if during or after our training process, you feel you are making great strides, I would welcome your testimonial ☺ With your permission, I'll add your testimonial to my website, along with your name, URL and photo (if you so choose). I look forward to our journey together!

With warm blessings,

DeAnna L'am
